

Dana Gray

“For I know the plans that I have for you,” declares the LORD, “plans for prosperity and not for disaster, to give you a future and a hope. Then you will call upon Me and come and pray to Me, and I will listen to you. And you will seek Me and find Me when you search for Me with all your heart.” Jeremiah 29:11-13

This verse is near and dear to Dana’s heart because it reminds her that, while at times, we may not know the plan for our lives, but God does. Did you know? He knew them before you were even born. And while we may have been like lost sheep along the way, He has and always will be there to lead us and guide us back. All we need to do is ask!

Dana grew up in Chesapeake, VA but has lived most of her adult life on the Outer Banks. She left the area in 2011 and moved to Greenville, NC to pursue her education as well as gain experience in the graphic design field. Dana relocated to Currituck in 2016 and is currently a self-employed graphic designer.

Dana has one son as well as a grandson. She attends Liberty Christian Fellowship. Dana is honored to be a part of Cross Roads OBX where she is fulfilling her desire to help and serve others.
