

Scott Haslar

To know peace is the way of the warrior. The warrior has peace of mind because they know that there is always a way to find light, even in the midst of the greatest darkness. They know that there is always hope to be found, even in despair - Erwin Raphael McManus

As a 28-year law enforcement veteran, Scott uses his years of experience with inner-city policing to assist individuals challenged by PTSD, stress, and trauma, particularly those in recovery. Scott holds a BA in Sociology and Criminal Justice, an MA in Applied Sociology, and an MA in Transpersonal Psychology. He lives on the Outer Banks with his wife Katy, who works for the Dare County Department of Health and Human Services.
