

Charlotte Ashe

“But He said to me, 'My grace is sufficient for you, for power is perfected in weakness.' Therefore, I will most gladly boast all the more about my weaknesses, so that Christ's power may reside in me.” 2 Corinthians 12:9

This verse is a daily reminder for Charlotte to trust in God's grace and power, instead of relying on her own ability, and to point others to Him.

Originally from New Orleans, Charlotte moved to the Outer Banks in 1987 and quickly fell in love with its beauty and strong sense of community. From an early age of watching older classmates serve and give of their time with joy, she developed a passion for serving others. God led her to Cross Roads in 2022 to meet a specific need and where she is able to live out the Gospel by working together with other believers to reach the lost.

Charlotte met her husband Jim in 1996 and worked alongside him as bookkeeper and Treasurer of Beach Painting Contractors until they sold their business in 2013. She currently serves as the Treasurer of the Outer Banks Community Church where she attends with Jim who is an Elder and Discipleship Pastor.